

Transformational Mentoring: A Psychosynthesis Coaching Training

A 2 YEAR ONLINE TRAINING PROGRAM OF 3 TERMS PER YEAR
FROM SEPTEMBER 2021

A spiritually-orientated, Psychosynthesis-based training for coaches, counsellors, and alternative practitioners who provide consulting, therapeutic guidance, or pastoral care within the context of their work and wish to develop their ability to facilitate substantive change and growth.

This course will educate its participants in the understanding and recognition of vital psychological contexts, the efficacy and application of relevant and important counselling skills, and, through group supervision, the experience and methods necessary to deepen and continue their personal and professional growth.

Transformational Mentoring: A Psychosynthesis

Coaching Training is taught by two highly experienced and accomplished Psychosynthesis Therapists:

Mark Jones (M.A. Psych synth Dip), practicing therapist and astrologer, is internationally recognised for his work fusing spiritual psychology and astrology. The author of Healing the Soul: Pluto, Uranus and the Lunar Nodes and The Soul Speaks: the therapeutic potential of astrology, Mark will share decades of insight and understanding as he leads the formal teaching component of the program.

Keith Hackwood (M.A. Psych Synth Dip) is a highly regarded therapist, supervisor, and group leader with experience across a wide range of settings, including universities, government departments, prisons, and independent charities. Skilled in integrating therapeutic practice beyond the formal counselling situation, Keith will share his knowledge as he leads the group development and supervision component of the program.
