

Intro to Electional Astrology

with Mary Shea

Course Syllabus

Lesson 1 - Introduction

1. The major difference between horary and electional astrology.
2. Radical elections (based on a natal chart) versus ephemeral elections (based on the ephemeris)
3. Character elections versus activity or “to do” elections
4. The importance of finality
5. Rules in general and how I feel about them (Handout on rules)
6. Astrology as a language and an art form
7. Planets as people or things in the electional chart (Handout)
8. Houses as locations, goals, positions, or things (Handout)
9. Aspects define activity as either positive or negative (Handout)
10. Six steps to take when choosing an electional chart
11. The importance of the Moon in an electional chart
12. Rulership, detriment, exaltation, fall, and peregrine planets
13. Demonstration on how to find the best time on the best day
14. Charts that worked against all odds (membership application, consumer complaint, book publication)
15. Ascendant or Midheaven connection to the initiator's natal chart
16. My philosophy and beliefs regarding electional astrology and co-creation

Lesson 2 – Numerous Successful Elections

1. Avoiding refranations (3 types)
2. Moon final aspect to a returning retrograde planet
3. Occultations in an electional chart
4. Marriage charts
5. Business charts

6. Buying a house for less
7. Selling a house for more
8. Diet charts
9. Surgery charts
10. Scholarship or loan charts
11. Lawsuits
12. Good and bad home improvements
13. Spiritual consciousness charts
14. 2023 Star of David formation
15. Professionalism as an electional astrologer